Breaux Bridge Man Dies in Fire

Breaux Bridge LA: State Fire Marshal H. "Butch" Browning announced today that an overnight fire that occurred on April 3, 2011, claimed the life of a man sleeping in a camper trailer.

The Breaux Bridge Volunteer Fire Department was called shortly after 7pm to 1469 Sawmill Highway for a report that a camper trailer was on fire. When firefighters arrived they discovered the 8' X 30' camper to be fully consumed by fire. They found the body of John Guidry Jr. (dob 9-18-65) in side, he was pronounced dead at the scene. No working smoke alarms were found in the structure.

The State Fire Marshal's Office was called to the scene to investigate this fire and resulting death. At this time the fire is under investigation. Fire Marshal Browning stated, "We are in the early stages of the investigation and hope, in the days to ahead to have more information about this tragic loss of life. We will be working with the St. Martin Parish Coroner to complete this investigation".
